Lions Push Plans to Light Football Field
at Lincoln-Way High

The Lions club of the communities that are a part of the Lincoln-Way high school district have formed a separate organization known as the Lincoln-Way Lions Committee for a specific purpose—Operation Floodlight.

Lincoln-Way high school has a football field but it is unlighted. As a result it has been using a baseball field at Manhattan that is equipped with lights. This has not proved satisfactory. There are no dressing rooms and bathing facilities at the Manhattan field. The teams that use it have to be transported back to Lincoln-Way to shower and dress.

The Lincoln-Way school board lacked funds to complete its athletic plant. That is why the Lions club of the district have stepped into the picture.

The committee recommends the incorporation of the "Lions of Lincoln-Way," with the president of each of the clubs to appoint a member who will serve as an incorporator.

The plan for financing the lighting project is this—the money needed to be borrowed from the banks on a master note to which would be attached 5 year notes of 50 denomination, signed by individuals.

Each club is to sponsor some sort of a project each year to retire the notes and all of the clubs will lend their support to such activities.

A meeting of the committee to discuss further details of the plan is scheduled for Jan. 19.

PTA to Open
Workshops for Parents Monday

The first in a series of 10 Parent Education workshops under the auspices of the PTA and the direction of Ethel Kavin of the University of Chicago Parent Education Project, will be held Jan. 9 at 8:30 p.m. in the Carl Sandburg high school 133rd and LaGrange road. They are open to everyone.

Co-leaders of the first workshop will be Mrs. Chester A. Williams, PTA vice president, and Mrs. R. W. Laing, who majored in child care at the University of Cincinnati. They have both completed the University of Chicago Workshop for study-discussion group leaders in Parenthood in a Free Nation. A film, "He Acts His Age," will be shown.

The Parent Education Project was started in April, 1953, with a grant from the Fund for Adult Education established by the Ford Foundation. Workshops are in the form of discussion groups, with reading material and films supplied by the Ford Foundation, as well as outside reading material. The objective of the project is the development of mature and responsible citizenship among adults, who, through their children, have a direct influence on the future growth of democracy. It is a nation wide project, extending into Canada.

Workshops will be based on six topics: Feelings of Security and Adequacy; Understanding of Self and Others; Democratic Values and Goals; Problem-Solving Attitudes and Methods; Self-Discipline; Responsibility and Freedom; and Constructive Attitudes Toward Change. More than one workshop may be devoted to a topic of special interest to the group.

The Monday evening date for the workshops is tentative, and will be changed, if necessary.

FALSE ALARM

A false alarm was turned in at the Mokena fire department around midnight Tuesday night. Persons who turn in false alarms are subject to prosecution, it was pointed out. Every time firemen respond to a call there is the possibility of a crash that might cause death or injury as well as damage to the apparatus, so when someone deliberately causes a run through turning in a false alarm, neither firemen nor municipal authorities like it. It is generally agreed by experts that persons who turn in false alarms are mentally defective.

2 Bandits Get $3,000 in Hold-up of Service Bakery at Tinley Park

Two bandits, one of them masked and both armed, sized four employees of the Service Bakery—two of them women at 16710 Oak Park ave. Saturday night, made them prisoners in a wash room off the main office, and then fled with the receipts estimated at approximately $3,000.

Tinley Park's Chief of Police Harold C. Moore is checking on several suspects.

The two men who staged the stick-up were described as being in their early 20's. One of them told the victims to keep looking at the floor, apparently so they would not have a chance to study the features of the unmasked bandit.

One of them, the victims couldn't say which because they were obeying the injunction to keep their eyes cast downward added that he was already wanted for murder and indicated he was ready to add others to his string unless his orders were obeyed.

The hold up occurred around 8:10 or 8:15 o'clock. Only a short time before that the last of the drivers had returned from their routes and checked in with their receipts.

Jerry Farquhar, of Tinley, was working in the bakery's garage at the rear of the plant when the door opened and two men walked in, one of them masked. They also had handkerchief or some piece of material over their right hands covering what appeared to be pistols.

They ordered Farquhar to walk ahead of them and take them into the bakery. Before they had reached the bakery door, however, their prisoner's father, Lowell Farquhar came out with intention of helping Jerry in the garage.

The bandits halted him and ordered him to accompany them into the bakery. Inside the bakery they first encountered Mrs. Ruth Patton, a clerk in the retail division. She was on her way to the office with her sales receipts. The bandits ordered her to join the Farquhars and then herded the trio to precede them into the office where Irene Jensen was working on her records. She had been checking in the drivers from the various routes.

The bandits told her to join the others and then ordered the four employees into a wash room. The bandits did not lock the wash room door but told the occupants that if they attempted to come out they would be shot. It was then that one of the thieves said he was wanted for a murder and a few more killings made no difference.

The bandits then proceeded to make their search of the office and cleaned it of all money. It was estimated the loss was approximately $3,000.

Just before their departure one of the bandits came out to the washroom door and warned the employees not to come out for five minutes.

How the robbers made their getaway is not known. Young Farquhar did not see them until they were inside the garage and did not know whether they came on foot or in a car.

Those penned up by the bandits were unable to give a description of them nor did they have any idea which way they went after leaving the bakery.

Taking Care of Heart Should be
No. 1 Resolution

New Year's resolutions for 1956 should begin with a determination to take good care of your heart and only heart, says your Heart Association.

The following are suggested, based on advice given to a patient who has or fears he will have a heart attack by the famed heart specialist, Dr. Louis N. Katz, president of the organization.

I will not be a glutton.
I will not be a "week-end athlete."

I will not be too lazy.
I will not get fat or stay that way.

I will do EVERYTHING in MODERATION—not too much, not too little, not too fast, not too slow.

RETURNS HOME FROM

Safety Resolutions, if Kept, can be Profitable to Farm Families

"Safety for all in 1956." That should be the determined effort of every farm family this coming year.

Right now is the time to make resolutions says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. And of equal importance is the determination to keep them throughout the coming year.

A New Year's safety resolution can be an interesting and profitable project for the entire farm family. Safety is more than a pastime. Safety can be the means of assuring happiness and the wellbeing of farm people everywhere.

The Illinois Rural Safety council suggests the following as suitable New Year's resolutions to be kept by the farm family in 1956:

1. We will check the farm and

Seal Sales Near
$30,000 Mark

The annual Christmas seal sale in Will county is approaching the $30,000 mark, according to a spokesman for the Will County Tuberculosis association.

The sales in Frankfort township amounted to $751 as of Dec. 23, while the figure for New Lenox on that date was $622. Only Lockport, Wilmington, Plainfield and Crete townships of the outlying towns had greater totals.

The seal sales in Lockport were approximately $2,900. Plainfield and Wilmington had subscribed approximately $900 and Crete $850.

The seal sales as of Dec. 23 in Homer amounted to $230 and $287 in Manhattan township. In Green Garden they totaled $92.

Joliet residents had subscribed approximately $18,400.

Money realized thru the sale of Christmas seals is used in financing research to combat tuberculosis and in the rehabilitation of persons who have recovered from the disease and are now seeking to readjust themselves.

home to locate and remove all hazards.

2. We will keep all shields and guards in place on machinery.

3. Regardless of the emergency, we will not permit young children to operate or ride upon farm machinery.

4. We will be alert for safety 52 weeks of the year.

There are many other farm safety resolutions that you should consider, such as keeping guns unloaded and out of children's reach; being cautious in handling all farm animals; encourage farm safety activities in all of our organizations; handle petroleum products carefully; operate tractors and other machinery with due caution.

Remember, it's important to keep the resolutions you make. Let's reduce accidents in 1956.

These young men, students at Carl Sandburg high school, are the champion corn judges of the United States, which is quite a title when one considers how many states there are in which corn is grown. They won the Illinois state title in November in the competition conducted at Lincoln with a score of 488 out of a possible 500. This score was pitted against the championship scores from other states and it was the best in the land. Wisconsin finished second in the U. S. contest with a score of 481.

Law Requires All
Aliens to Report
Their Addresses

Commissioner J. M. Swing reminded non-citizens today that they must report their address to the Immigration and Naturalization service during each January under provisions of the 1952 Immigration and Nationality Act.

The commissioner urged all aliens to go to the nearest Post Office or immigration office to fill out an address report card in compliance with the requirement.

Swing pointed out that willful violation of the act could make an alien subject to a fine and/or deportation.

The commissioner noted that some 2,300,000 aliens reported their addresses under the act last year. He said the figure is expected to top the two and one-half million mark in 1956.

He stressed that the address report cards must be filled out during January to be in compliance with the law.

District Director Robert H. Robinson of the local office of the Immigration and Naturalization service said the address report cards are now available at all immigration offices and post offices, and joined with the commissioner in urging that all aliens fill out cards as soon as possible.

District Director Robinson explained that to comply with the law the alien must fill out a card and hand it to a post office or immigration clerk. No alien should mail his own card.

Frankfort Tries Out
Iron Removal Device

An iron remover has been installed by the Frankfort village board at No. 2 pump house on a trial basis. The equipment also is said to serve in a limited capacity as a softener.

The primary purpose, however it was said, was to remove the iron that has brought about a rise in housewives' tempers for years. Sinks and bowls are forever showing the red-brown stain of the heavy iron deposits in the water.

The equipment now on trial was furnished by the Warren Chemical Co., of Chicago. It is understood that if it works out satisfactorily similar equipment will be installed at the other pump house.

EXPLAINS MATERIAL PILE

A pile of what appears to be forms and house walls stored on former farm property near the intersection of Routes 30 and 45 has caused a number of persons to make inquiries of County Zoning Officer Ralph Newkirk. The material it was explained represents a purchase from a government project and is to be sold in its entirety next spring.

In the meantime, Mr. Newkirk said, permission has been granted to the owner to store the material in its present location until it is disposed of in the spring.

Traffic Toll for Will County is 64 in 1955; Less than 1954

The number of automobile deaths in Will county this past year was 64, according to Coroner Willard G. Blood.

Coroner Blood feels that some progress has been made in reducing the number of deaths due to automobile accidents in the county. There were 68 persons who lost their lives as a result of auto crashes in Will county in 1954. And while the number killed last year was only four less in actual count than the toll for 1954, Coroner Blood believes that the difference was much greater percentage wise in view of the fact that there are more cars and hence more traffic. No one was fatally injured in Will county over the New Year's holiday. Four were killed at Christmas.

Speed was again the main cause of fatal accidents, according to the evidence brought out at inquests.

The figures for 1955 show that six of the persons killed were pedestrians, five of whom were adults. This is usually the case, it was pointed out. Children are taught safety in the schools and the lessons appear to have borne fruit. Adults, on the other hand, are careless in crossing streets. The number of adults injured while crossing the streets and highways in Will county last year is not available but it is understood to have been high as compared to the number of

Lincoln-Way Board
Asks County to Create

Building Permits
on Space Basis

The fee charged for building permits in Mokena is to be determined by the size, rather than the value of the structure to be constructed. This decision was reached by the Mokena village board at its regular meeting Tuesday night.

The fee has been $1 per $1,000 valuation. Under the new system it will be so much a square foot, except when a permit is taken out for remodeling a structure or building a garage after a house has been built. The dollar per thousand fee will still prevail in those instances.

The fee based on square feet will vary according to the type of construction. If the structure is to be of brick or other form of masonry the fee will be two cents a square foot; if of frame construction, one and one-half cents per square foot. Any breezeway or enclosed walk will be considered a part of the house area and figured as such but a garage, if built at the same time as the house, will not be included in the square foot total.

A map has just been completed by Max C. Seiberling, of Joliet, engineer and surveyor, for the village of Mokena which will guide that body in its supervision of zoning and subdivisions of tracts in and adjacent to the village.

Village Attorney Raymond Hoelcher has been instructed to draft the amendment to the building ordinance. He also was instructed by the board to notify four delinquent water users that their supply is to be shut off Jan. 14 unless their bills have been paid by that time.

These users are considerably in arrears and there are some others who are back in their payments—but for not as long—who will be given a 10-day notice of impending shut-off of water.

The village board received notification from state Secretary of State Charles Carpenter that the automobile licenses of two Mokena residents have been suspended. The license of Frederick Shunko has been lifted for three months, while the other license, that of Donald Morten, has been suspended for six months. Should either drive during the period of suspension, it was pointed out, they are subject to court action with a penalty of fine or jail or both.

In the meantime, Mr. Newkirk said, permission has been granted to the owner to store the material in its present location until it is disposed of in the spring.

Appointment of a supervisor of assessments for the county has been suggested to the Will county board by the board of education of Lincoln-Way high school as a means of improving the tax machinery.

A supervisor of assessments, it was pointed out, could bring about a uniform system of evaluating property and inasmuch as his office would be functioning through the year all improvements to lands and lots could be noted and all parcels of real estate placed in the books, and all transfer of titles noted.

Kane county has such a system and it is said to work out very well for property owners as well as taxing bodies.

The Lincoln-Way school board also is in favor of joining with other taxing bodies and employ a professional group to check the assessments within the three townships which make up the district, Frankfort, New Lenox, and a portion of Manhattan. The objective of such a plan, it was said, was to arrive at a proper and uniform valuation and to make certain that all property was listed on the tax books.

The school board also is on record as favoring a move to provide the local assessors with help and pay in proportion to the amount of time required to perform their duties.

The Lincoln-Way board is not critical of the local assessors, it was pointed out, but rather of the system under which they operate. There is not enough pay, enough help or enough time it was said.

Last summer the Lincoln-Way board called a special meeting to which the bankers, the supervisors, the assessors and the members of the elementary school boards were invited.

The bankers were there but few of the elementary school boards were represented. All persons interested in school affairs also were invited to that meeting—which was held at the high school, but only a few appeared.

The Lincoln-Way board is hopeful of stirring more action now and would welcome suggestions or comments. It would also welcome support of its suggestion to the county board that a supervisor of assessments be employed.

It has been suggested from other quarters that legislation be sought under which counties might have an option of setting up an office that would have full charge of tax matters, including the making of rates, the extension of taxes, the preparation of assessors' books, collection of taxes and maps showing the location of every parcel of property with the name of the owner and the status of the lot or land (improved or unimproved) clearly marked, valuations kept current etc.

Tax business is big business, it was pointed out, and should be organized as such.

A Prayer

By H. B. Garvin
My heart is lifted, Lord, to Thee
As at Thy feet I bow in prayer,
That this new year might find in me
A strength and loyalty most rare.

I do not ask for days of ease,
Or nights without some care;
Nor gifts with which myself to please,
While others struggle in despair.
But give me, Lord, a soul so strong

That I may be a soldier true
To carry burdens hard and long,
In all I find each day to do,
And let me labor through the year
With loyalty for Thee and Thine,
That I may come without fear
To render thanks for all that's mine.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The purifying power of true prayer will be set forth in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Sacrament" at Christian Science services this Sunday, January 8.

Bible passages will include the counsel of Christ Jesus regarding prayer (Matt. 6:6): "But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

Continuing the explanation of prayer, a correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (15:9): "To enter into the heart of prayer, the door of the erring senses must be closed. Lips must be mute and materialism silent, that man may have audience with Spirit, the divine Principle, Love, which destroyed all error."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (51:10): "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me."

When Governor Joel A. Matteson and his family moved into the newly built Executive Mansion in Springfield, November 30, 1855, folks generally regarded the structure as "about the finest residence in Illinois." Almost three years earlier the General Assembly had appropriated money for the mansion.

Cure for Worry

Lesson for January 8, 1956

"TAKE no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, neither for the body, what ye shall put on." Did Jesus say this? There it stands in Luke 12:22. But how foolish it sounds! Christians do take thought for what they eat; they plan meals, they eat in Grade-A restaurants if possible; they make out grocery lists, they store food in freezers. They take thought for the body, too; didn't you get out your winter underwear and your overcoat, and didn't you store those last summer where the moths couldn't get at them? Very good Christians act as if Jesus never said "Take no thought . . ." As a matter of fact, the instinct of such Christians has always been right. Jesus never did say this. The Revised Standard Version gives the word of Jesus the right translation which Greek scholars have always known was correct: "Do not be anxious." Thought for the future is not wrong; anxiety about the future is wrong for a Christian, and not good sense for anybody.

"Your Father Knows . . ."

Worry is a kind of disease, and Jesus offers a cure for it. He had tested it in his own life first, and countless Christians have discovered that it will work. First and most important ingredient in this cure for worry is trust in God. Many people believe in God, after a fashion, without trusting him. Jesus reminds us that God is our Father, and that he knows what we need. He knows we need food and clothing. He will not see to it that we shall get what we need without our promise to give us all we want. But we can be confident that our Father in heaven is none other than the Infinite and All-wise God. What ever is real, is known to him, however small. The needs of the flowers in the meadow, the needs of the birds on the wing, God knows these—and how much more we his children have a right to depend on him! Worry is a sign we have forgotten God, or don't think he is wise enough, or strong enough, to do what is right.

Mountain and Molehill

Most human minds are pretty active. They are like a sweet-pea vine; its tendrils reach out and if they don't find a fence or a trellis they will climb up the nearest weed. So our minds get twisted around weeds and get lost in the high grass when they should be climbing into the sunshine. A second ingredient in Jesus' cure for worry could be expressed in the proverb: Put first things first. Most worries are caused by the things that are least important. Jesus picks out food, drink and clothing, as the things which "all the nations of the world" are seeking. Now these things are important. It is not wrong to buy groceries nor to plan a garden. But when they take first place in our minds, when we are anxious about these things forgetting others more important, we deserve all the trouble our worrying causes us. The preacher who worries more over how he says a thing than about what he says; the mother who worries more over her children's clothes than over their minds; the Marthas of the world who are "anxious and troubled about many things" so that they never have time for the heavenly Guest; these all carry burdens of worry which would drop off if they would put first things first.

The Mind at Work—on What?

Worry is not to be got rid of simply by sitting down in an easy-chair and saying "Worry, go away!" You can't even pray it away, though prayer does help enormously and (as was said) without trust in God, worry is inevitable. Worry has to be worked away. Jesus' cure for worry includes this: "Seek God's kingdom." Paul writes: "The kingdom of God does not mean food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit." (Rom. 14:17.) Any Christian who will really put his mind and his energies to work in the service of God's Kingdom—that is to say, adding to the too-small sum of righteousness, peace and joy in this world, working to make this earth more like heaven—will find that his worries have mostly evaporated.

Mrs. Richard Freund, mental health chairman of the Tinley Park Woman's club, gave an interesting report at the recent luncheon on the Christmas gift distribution at Manteno state hospital. Members of the club had donated gifts for 50 patients including the five "adopted" ones who will be remembered throughout the year with cards and gifts. These five patients do not receive mail or visitors and Mrs. Freund had made inquiry as to their needs so their gifts might be more personal. The hour spent with them was very rewarding, it was pointed out as they appreciated the visit.

Mental illness carries with it the highest rate of recovery of any disease when adequately treated, it is said, and very often by kind and sympathetic visiting one can give that word of encouragement, which the busy hospital staff would like to give, but do not have the time.

The Illinois Federation of Women's clubs has a wonderful program whereby all clubwomen and volunteers can aid the mentally ill.

How one can help, it was said, can be learned thru inquiry.

Mrs. Voris Miller, president, Mrs. Lewis Shawyer, Mrs. Walter Eichelberg and Mrs. D. W. Gruber comprised the committee assisting Mrs. Freund in the distribution of all the gifts.

Readers' Viewpoint

In the VFW you will find men who gave far more than they will ever receive.

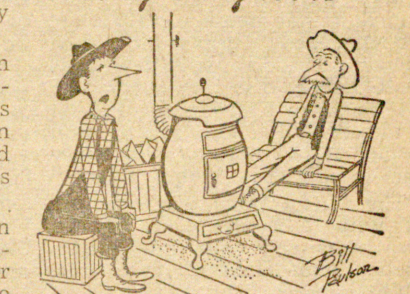

In the VFW you will find men as anxious to serve their community, state and nation with as much hard work and loyalty in time of peace, as they served their country with heartaches and suffering in time of war.

In the VFW you will find men who had their horizons so widened and have set goals for themselves and their nation so high, that they will never see them attained, even though the Man Upstairs grants them a long and active life.

In the VFW you will find men who would appreciate it no end, if occasionally you would bear in mind the things they constantly and forever must bear in their hearts.

Passing of Homer Native

Peter Wies, a life-time resident of Homer township, died Dec. 27 in Silver Cross hospital following a heart attack at his home. The inhalator squad of the Lockport fire department was called, and after administering first aid, removed him to the hospital where he died the same day. He had had several similar attacks over a period of years and had also suffered from arthritis, but had usually been able to be about and on Christmas day was a dinner guest in the Walter Konow home.

Born Aug. 11, 1879, Mr. Wies engaged in farming on the site of his present home until 15 years ago, when he retired, but continued to live at the same place which has since been operated by his son, Clarence. He was married to Catherine Simandl, also of Homer, on Feb. 28, 1911. Besides his wife and son, he is survived by two brothers, Matthew, Crown Point, Ind., and Michael of Lyle; one sister, Mrs. Eugene Dauter, New Lenox; two granddaughters, Mrs. Kaye Yeates and Miss Barbara Wies, and one great grandson, Richard Yeates.

He was a member of the Modern Woodmen.

Funeral services were held Friday morning from the Miller funeral home to St. Dennis church, Lockport, with burial in Calvary cemetery.

Sportabout

by JACK MAYPOLE
Right now is the time to mark a special date on your calendar if you even think you like boats.

From Feb. 3 to 12 the Chicago National Boat show will be at the "In-nat", amphitheater in Chicago. Three years ago this exhibition became the greatest of its kind in the country and this year it will be bigger and better than ever.

Outdoor craft will dominate the displays, proving again that the Midwest is the nation's biggest section for this sport with Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin accounting for 25 per cent of outdoor sales in 1955.

A record total of 60 outdoor cruisers and 459 outboard runabouts will be on hand. Family style boats will dominate displays. For the first time canoe, Pram and rowboat classes, totaling 22 types, will be less in number.

Forty-one inboard cruisers and 42 inboard runabouts will be shown as will 22 types of sailing craft.

Fourteen outboard and 10 inboard motor manufacturers will bring their latest engines before the public. Accessory and supply exhibits will total 124. Ten publishing firms will offer the latest in books while 25 trailer manufacturers will disclose how their wares operate.

There will be 15 educational exhibits including those of the navy, coast guard, Illinois conservation department and the Chicago Power Squadron.

If you have a boat or a yen to own one, this is the one event where you will have the best chance in the world to make up your mind as 122 builders will offer designs including some from Swedish, English, Scottish and German plants.

ILLINOIS FIRST
Illinois ranks first among states in the 1955 production of corn and soybeans. The 524 million bushel corn crop is the second largest ever raised in the Prairie State. The 101 million bushel soybean chop surpasses all former records.
This showing is listed in the annual crop summary of the state and federal departments of agriculture, which says the total value of 1955 Illinois farm field crops was 1,196 million dollars. Increase production brought this total to a mark about two million dollars above the 1954 crop value, in spite of lower prices.

Name Your Frame

Eye-glasses were once sold from pushcarts. You picked out something you liked, and tried it on. If it seemed to suit, you offered the peddler half of what he asked—and left happy.

Today your optician is a professional. Highly trained, he's licensed to make up lenses according to a doctor's prescription. The frames the lenses come in have changed drastically, too. Today you can get high-style frames by Harlequin to match your outfit. Some of the styles are so popular, ladies who don't need glasses have, in some cases, taken to wearing them with plain lenses.

Scout Trail

The name of Chief Pokagon, 19th Century tribal leader of the Potawatomi Indians, as well as his spirit of capable guidance, has been given the local Boy Scout council, Pokagon Trails. Just as Chief Pokagon had the responsibility of leading his Indian band, so Pokagon Trails council has the responsibility of guiding the destiny of the Boy Scout Movement in the south suburban area of Cook county and adjacent communities in Indiana.

In the Council's service area, more than thirty communities are represented, each with its own churches, schools, civic groups and service organizations thru which Scouting works.

This year, over 10,000 boys will have fun camping, swimming, hiking, working on handicraft projects, and participating in a host of other adult directed activities through the efforts of 2,000 adult leaders who will be recruited in the Council to give local community groups. Some direct leadership to the 250 Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops, and Explorer posts. Another 1,000 adult leaders stand ready to give expert training and support in order that each Unit's program for the boys can be of the best quality.

Pokagon Trails Council, one of 545 such local Scouting areas in the United States, has been chartered by congress and given the responsibility for promoting the Scouting program. This responsibility has been met by both the volunteer leaders, headed by Council President Joe R. Swingle of Homewood, and the professional leaders, under the direction of Raymond J. Donovan, scout executive. Among the communities in the Council area are Whiting, Homewood, Harvey, Park Forest, Chicago Heights, Midlothian, Riverdale, Dolton, and communities adjacent to these towns.

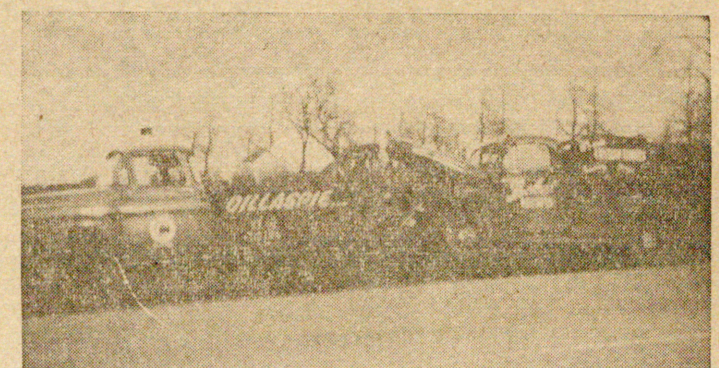

BROWNIES

Brownie troop 239 entertained their mothers at a Christmas tea on December 27 in the social hall of the Zion Lutheran church. The girls conducted their regular meeting. They presented several skits showing the "right" and the "wrong" way to do a number of every-day activities. Every-one joined in singing the well-loved Christmas carols. The mothers were then presented with the special gift which the Brownies had industriously been working on for a number of meetings. Each girl had made a beautifully-colored sequin accessory to be worn as a tie. The exchange of gifts among the girls present concluded the program. The committee which had been formed the week prior to the party had been working hard. The tables were set with Christmas tablecloth and napkins; the "bake" committee had met that morning and baked three cakes in Christmas tree design and iced most appropriately; the little hostesses were most cordial, and finally the "clean-up" committee functioned very efficiently. Hot chocolate for the Brownies and coffee for the mothers accompanied the delicious cake. Leaders for troop 239 are Mrs. Gene Anderson, Mrs. Robert Rich and Mrs. Matt Steinmetz.

INTERMEDIATES

Intermediate troop 334 presents badges and pins. Intermediate troop 334 planned and conducted their own Christmas party in the social rooms of the Methodist church on Dec. 27. Badges were presented to Scouts recently completing their First Aid course. Five year membership pins were given to Audrey Nielsen and Sharon Jochum. Plans for the next eight weeks include leatherwork instruction and execution of a piece in simple design. Leaders of this troop are Mrs. Harold Zobac and Mrs. Ernest Yepsen.

Right Side Up Again

The pick-up in tow here is somewhat the worse for wear as a result of an accident that put the driver, Charles Vincent, 44, of 175th st., Tinley Park, in Hazelcrest hospital just before Christmas. Vincent suffered a broken hip when the truck skidded on a film of ice on the pavement, went off the road and overturned after striking a culvert. The accident occurred the evening of Friday, Dec. 23, when it was foggy and the mist was making ice on the highways. Vincent is a foreman for the Locke contracting firm. He was fortunate that he was not slashed to ribbons as the impact with the culvert caused him to be hurled thru the windshield.
